RedCap Restaurant proudly celebrated its grand opening in Doha with a dignified and memorable inauguration ceremony. The event began with a heartfelt du‘ā (prayer) and blessings offered by Imam Mohammad Golam Rabbani.

The restaurant was officially inaugurated by the Ambassador of the Republic of the Philippines to Qatar, H.E. Mardomel Celo D. Melicor. In his remarks, H.E. Melicor praised diverse culinary initiatives in Qatar and emphasized the importance of cultural exchange through food. “We are honored to welcome the community to RedCap Restaurant. May Allah grant success, barakah, and prosperity in this new journey,” said a representative of the event.

The ceremony was attended by the owner, Bangladeshi-Australian entrepreneur Humaira Rashid, who played a leading role in the establishment and vision of RedCap Restaurant. She was joined by dignitaries, corporate executives, business leaders, and community representatives.

Distinguished Guests Included:

- Mr. Humayun Kabir — Director, HR & Finance, Pre-University Education, Qatar Foundation

- Dr. Saleem Ahmed — IT Executive, MPC Doha
- Dr. Razib Islam — Senior Manager, B2B Networks Connectivity Products, Ooredoo Qatar
- Mr. Anwar — Engineer & Community Leader
- Dr. Azad Ashraf — President, Bangladesh Forum Qatar (BFQ)
- Other community and corporate representatives
