Doha, Qatar – January 30, 2026: The much-anticipated Asian Mega Concert 2026 is set to take place in Doha, the capital of Qatar, with the renowned ‘Nogor Baul’ artist James as the main attraction. The concert will be held at the amphitheater of Asian Town in the artistic hub of Sanaiya, Doha.

Organized by the Bangladeshi-owned Royal Aksa Group, a press conference was held at Al Faisan Auditorium, Doha, where the organizers shared detailed information about the upcoming concert. The briefing followed a video message from James confirming his participation in the event. The session was hosted by Golam Mawla Hazari, Qatar correspondent of Ekattor Television.

Attendees included Mohammad Anwar Ahmed, owner of Al Faisan, and Amin Rasool Saiful, Secretary of the Bangladesh Community in Qatar, along with senior Pakistani journalist Haroon Rashid Qureshi and other Bangladeshi media representatives based in Qatar.

The concert will be emceed by popular presenter Arshia Alam. Alongside James, the stage will feature a star-studded lineup of Bangladeshi artists, including actress Achol, singers Belal Khan and Tashiba, among others. Excitement is running high among the Bangladeshi expatriate community in Qatar, eager to experience James’s live performance.
