Muscat: Pakistan Social Club Oman, in collaboration with the Embassy of Pakistan, successfully organized a soul-stirring Qawwali Night at the Open Theatre of the Muscat Nights Festival. The event drew an enthusiastic and record-breaking audience of over 4,000 attendees, making it one of the most memorable and highly attended cultural evenings in the history of Muscat Nights.

The evening was spiritually uplifting and culturally enriching, featuring mesmerizing performances by renowned Qawwals Ustad Fareed Ayaz Sahib and Janab Abu Muhammad Sahib, accompanied by their brothers. Their magical renditions of classical Qawwali, blending profound poetry with intricate rhythms, captivated the audience, creating an atmosphere of devotion, harmony, and cultural pride, amplified by continuous applause, standing ovations, and heartfelt appreciation throughout the program.

Pakistan Social Club Oman extended sincere appreciation to the management of Muscat Nights, especially Dr. Eng. Nasser Salim Al Sadi and his dedicated team, for providing a prestigious platform to showcase Pakistan's rich spiritual and cultural heritage. Their professionalism, cooperation, and support were instrumental in the flawless execution of the event, ensuring every aspect—from stage arrangements to audience engagement—was seamless.

The success of the evening was made possible through the tireless efforts and teamwork of Pakistan Social Club Oman's leadership, including Chairman Mohammad Nadeem Azeemi, Vice Chairman Zahid Shakoor, Finance Director Imran Toor, General Secretary Kashif Ahmed Zaeem, Joint Secretary Mohammad Kaleem Akhtar, Directors Shaandar Bokhari and Mrs. Azra Aleem, along with committed volunteers. The Embassy of Pakistan's active support further elevated the event's stature and significance, adding diplomatic prestige to the cultural showcase.

Special recognition was given to Syed Fayyaz Ali Shah for his exceptional role in organizing and coordinating the program. His dedication and active involvement, alongside senior officials of Muscat Nights, played a key role in ensuring the evening's resounding success. Pakistan Social Club Oman also gratefully acknowledged the generous support of sponsors, including Haseena Jewellers (Mega Sponsor), Friendi Mobile (Bronze Sponsor), Ravi Restaurant, Pizza Modo, Riyal Tikka, and Mian Riaz & Partner. Their contributions were vital in promoting cultural activities, supporting community engagement, and enhancing the visibility of Pakistan's spiritual and cultural legacy in Oman.

This Qawwali Night will be remembered as a landmark and historic cultural celebration, highlighting unity, spirituality, and the rich traditions of Pakistan, while strengthening enduring cultural ties between communities in Oman. The event set a new benchmark for the Muscat Nights Festival, inspiring future cultural collaborations, fostering youth participation, and reinforcing Pakistan Social Club Oman's commitment to fostering cross-cultural harmony, shared appreciation, and community pride throughout the Sultanate.
