Jeddah, May 12 (QNA) – Council of Ministers of Saudi Arabia reaffirmed the Kingdom’s full support for Gulf states and the measures they are taking to safeguard their security and stability amid rising regional tensions.

During a cabinet session chaired by HRH Saudi Crown Prince and Prime Minister Prince Mohammed bin Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, the council strongly condemned “treacherous attacks” targeting the territories and territorial waters of Qatar, United Arab Emirates, and Kuwait.

The cabinet also discussed efforts to strengthen Saudi Arabia’s international partnerships, praising the outcomes of the third meeting of the Saudi-Turkish Coordination Council as a major step toward expanding bilateral cooperation across multiple sectors
