ANKARA, May 24 — Turkish Foreign Minister Hakan Fidan met Ukraine's chief negotiator Rustem Umerov in Ankara, diplomatic sources said on Sunday.

According to the sources, the two officials held talks focusing on ongoing diplomatic engagement between Türkiye and Ukraine amid regional developments.

No further details were immediately disclosed by officials.

The meeting comes as Türkiye continues its mediation efforts and maintains communication channels with both sides involved in the ongoing conflict.

Officials did not release an agenda or outcomes, and neither side has issued a formal statement regarding the talks.
