Rawalpindi, 20 August 2024: The Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) has announced ticket prices for the second Test match between Pakistan and Bangladesh at Rawalpindi Cricket Stadium, scheduled from 30 August to 3 September.

Ticket prices remain consistent with the first Test. Premium enclosures (Miran Baksh, Sohail Tanvir, Yasir Arafat) are priced at PKR 200. VIP enclosures (Imran Khan, Javed Miandad) cost PKR 500 on weekdays and PKR 600 on weekends. Fans seeking an enhanced experience can opt for the Gallery pass at PKR 2,800 or the Platinum box at PKR 12,500, both of which include lunch and tea. A full hospitality box is available for PKR 200,000.

Tickets are available online at PCB.tcs.com.pk, at designated TCS express centers, and at a physical ticket booth located at Aviation Ground, opposite Rescue 1122, Rawal Road.

For fans' convenience, a free shuttle bus service will operate on match days across two routes to ensure easy access to the stadium. Route 1 covers Aviation Ground, Rawal Road, Murree Road to Allama Iqbal Park Entrance Gate, while Route 2 runs from Government Satellite Town College for Boys, 6th Road, Murree Road to Allama Iqbal Park Entrance Gate.

The PCB aims to maintain affordable prices to ensure widespread accessibility for cricket enthusiasts. sources PCB
