Sometimes, there comes a time in our life that we force ourselves to think how to live a beautiful life? But we forget to interpret the word “beautiful”. I define the word beautiful as calm, soothing and remembrance. People often forget to live a beautiful life because they are rushing towards a materialistic life and in search of materialism, they forgot how beautiful our life is.

I have seen people who are far from the remembrance of Allah are not living a beautiful life. They are living a materialistic life and end up asking how to live a beautiful life?

Life is beautiful and with the remembrance of Allah, it can become more beautiful. However, the urge to get everything in this temporary will make us forget to even interpret the word beautiful.

In order to live a beautiful life, first we have to think again what is life? Life involves acknowledging its inherent uncertainty. However, this is just a starting point; it serves as a pathway to discovering meaning. Thus, life is an ongoing journey of growth, where we establish values and significance. In this way, life is a continuous process of surpassing itself, constantly propelling into the future and shaping the present.

However, we have to remind ourselves that there is another life waiting for us in another world which will be beautiful. However, the next life will only be beautiful if can feel the word beautiful. Only then we will be able to prepare for the next world.
