Three terrorists of the Balochistan Liberation Army (BLA) were killed during a late-night intelligence-based operation in Mastung District of the Balochistan province, the military said in a statement. According to Inter-Services Public Relations (ISPR), security forces launched the operation targeting militants involved in multiple attacks, including the assassination of Panjgur's Deputy Commissioner, Zakir Ali, on 12 August. Following a fierce exchange of fire, it added, three BLA terrorists were killed, while three others were injured. Officials confirmed that the operation successfully avenged the killing of the deputy commissioner, ensuring the perpetrators were brought to justice. Pakistan's security forces, in step with the nation, remain committed to maintaining peace, stability, and progress in Balochistan amidst ongoing threats.
