Lahore, 20 August 2024: The Pakistan Cricket Board has confirmed the official broadcasters for the two-match Test series between Pakistan and Bangladesh at the Rawalpindi Cricket Stadium.

The first match will be played from 21-25 August while the second Test is scheduled from 30 August to 3 September.

The series will be broadcasted live on A-Sports, Ten Sports and PTV Sports and will be live-streamed on Tamasha, ARYZAP and Tapmad in Pakistan. T Sports (Bangladesh), TrillerTV+ (Continental Europe, Australia, New Zealand and the Caribbean), Tamasha (India and Sub-Saharan Africa), Cricbuzz (MENA and South East Asia), Willow (North America), ARY Digital and TNT Sports (United Kingdom) and Sports Central (Rest of the World) will broadcast matches internationally.

In addition to the Bangladesh Tests, Tamasha has also won live-streaming rights in the Pakistan region for the three-match Test series against England at home in October. England's tour to Pakistan will commence with the series opener on 7 October followed by the second and third Test beginning on 15 and 24 October, respectively.

Aamer Ejaz, Chief Digital Officer of Jazz:

“Tamasha remains the flag-bearer of sports streaming in Pakistan particularly cricket, tapping into our nation's enduring passion for the game. We're excited to partner with PCB to digitally broadcast the home Test series against Bangladesh in August, and against England in October. This partnership is testament to our commitment to bring convenient and accessible entertainment to Pakistani users at all times.”

Salman Naseer, PCB Chief Operating Officer:

“We are delighted to partner with our official broadcasters for the Test series between Pakistan and Bangladesh, commencing the start of the 2024-25 home international season. This collaboration ensures that fans both locally and internationally will experience every moment of the action. We are also pleased with the key addition of Tamasha for the live-streaming rights of our three Tests against England and are grateful for their support in ensuring comprehensive coverage of Pakistan cricket.” Sources PCB
