UNO urged to take notice of such egregious HR abuses in valley:

MIRPUR (AJK): August 25: Young Muslim Women Forcibly Coerced into Religious Conversion in the Indian illegally occupied Jammu Kashmir state (IIOJK), reports reaching here on Sunday from across the line of control revealed.

The living conditions for minorities in India have deteriorated significantly, with women facing particularly harsh challenges.

Women are especially vulnerable, making it very difficult for them to live and work freely in the country. India has become a hostile environment for women, especially in recent times.

An alarming trend has emerged where young muslim women are being forcibly pressured into changing their religion.

This situation is particularly concerning in IIOJK, where young kashmiri muslim girls are being deceived and coerced into converting from Islam to Hinduism under the guise of love.

A recent case involving Humera Mohi ud Din, whose conversion certificate was highlighted in the Indian media, clearly indicates that this girl hailing from Baramulla, IIOJK, was forcibly compelled to change her religion.

The international community and the United Nations Organisation have been urged to immediately move urgently to take immediately take notice of these egregious human rights violations in internationally acknowledged disputed Indian Illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir state and press India to cease such heinous acts instantly
