Doha, August 28 (QNA) – The Diplomatic Institute of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs held a panel discussion with the participation of 34 students from Geneva Graduate Study Programme, in collaboration with College of Public Policy (CPP) at Hamad Bin Khalifa University.

The panel was intended to enhance their knowledge of the Qatari foreign policy, as well as international and diplomatic affairs.

Moderated by Director of Diplomatic Institute Dr. Abdulaziz Al Horr, the panel discussed the Qatari foreign policy principles, the current challenges facing international diplomacy, the significance of international dialogue and cooperation, as well as Qatar's role in bolstering peace and stability in the region.

Upon conclusion of the panel, the students expressed their aspiration to make further field trips that strengthen their skills and knowledge in diplomatic field.
