Occupied Jerusalem, (QNA)– The Israeli occupation forces on Thursday arrested 5 Palestinians in occupied West Bank.

The occupation forces arrested 3 Palestinians from Silwan town, south of the blessed Al-Aqsa Mosque, and from the Shuafat camp, in occupied Jerusalem.

Local sources in the camp said that the occupation forces arrested two young men after stopping them on the main street of the camp, and their identities are not yet known, the sources added.

The occupation forces assaulted them before arresting them, the sources added.

In Silwan, the occupation forces arrested a Palestinian after raiding the Abbasiya neighborhood in the town, and took him to the Al-Maskoubiya detention centre.

In the meantime, the occupation forces arrested a Palestinian from Tubas, and stormed the Artah suburb, south of Tulkarm, and arrested a young man after raiding his home.

The occupation forces arrested 16 Palestinians since Wednesday until Thursday morning.

The Israeli occupation forces have arrested more than 10,400 Palestinians from the West Bank, including Jerusalem, since the beginning of the ongoing war of extermination and comprehensive aggression on the Gaza Strip and the West Bank.
