Doha, September 08 (QNA)– HH Sheikha Moza bint Nasser, the Chairperson of the Education

Above All (EAA) Foundation and Sustainable Development Goals Advocate, visited Sunday the First Assalam School.

Her Highness was briefed on the continued efforts exerted by EAAs “Together Project” which aims to provide quality education and training to Palestinian children and youth who have been deprived of formal education opportunities because of the ongoing war on Gaza.

Her Highness toured various educational facilities and met with students, and visited an exhibition highlighting the effort of EAAs Al Fakhoora program, and the efforts designed to empower and support Palestinian families residing in Qatar. The exhibition also features home projects such as embroidery and cooking skills and other, and displays success stories of Al

Fakhoora graduates in the local labor market, in addition to the efforts of First Assalam School in partnership with Al Fakhoora program in the field of vocational and entrepreneurship training.

Her Highness was accompanied by HE Prime Minister of the Republic of Yemen Dr. Ahmed Awad bin Mubarak, and HE First Lady of the Federative Republic of Brazil Rosangela Lula da Silva, who are visiting the country to participate in an event organized by the Education Above All (EAA)

Foundation on the occasion of the International Day to Protect Education from Attack, which will be hosted in Qatar National Convention Centre Monday
