Gaza, September 11 (QNA) – Nine Palestinian citizens were martyred, and others went missing as a result of the Israeli occupation’s shelling of a house on Old Gaza Street in Jabalia, in the northern Gaza Strip, as Israeli occupation forces continue their intensive aggression on Gaza for the 341st day, targeting residential areas.

Other areas also witnessed intense military escalation, with Israeli artillery shelling the northern parts of al-Bureij and al-Nuseirat refugee camps in central Gaza.

Another Israeli strike in al-Bureij camp resulted in the martyrdom of a child.

On Tuesday evening, a Palestinian was martyred, and others were injured in an Israeli airstrike that targeted an apartment in al-Bureij camp in central Gaza.

In eastern Khan Yunis, southern Gaza, several Palestinian citizens were injured by Israeli shelling that targeted a house in Bani Suhaila.

The ongoing Israeli aggression on Gaza since Oct. 7 has resulted in the martyrdom of 41,020 Palestinians and the injury of 94,925 others, most of whom are children and women. Rescue teams are facing difficulties in reaching thousands of victims still trapped under the rubble or on the streets.
