MIRPUR (AJK): Sept 30: Engr. Afzal Ziai, Central President, Kashmir Freedom Movement

(KFM)said here tonight that the martyrdom of Hezbollah's chief, Sayyed Hassan Nasrallah, in an Israeli airstrike was a grave tragedy and a moment of deep sorrow for the Muslim world.

Strongly condemning the naked Israeli attack on Hezbollah Chief that led to the martyrdom of great leader besides his innocent daughter, the Ziai said while talking to media here Sunday night that the cowardly act by the Zionist regime highlights its ongoing oppression of the Palestinian people and its relentless aggression against those who stand in solidarity with them. Sayyed Hassan Nasrallah's life and sacrifices were devoted to defending the oppressed, and his martyrdom is a powerful reminder that the struggle for Palestine continues unabated.

Ziai continued that Hezbollah has been a steadfast force of resistance when much of the Arab world chose to turn its back on Palestine. When others stayed silent, Hezbollah stood with the people of Gaza, shoulder to shoulder with the shuhada (martyrs), offering their own blood in the fight for justice. Their efforts in supporting the Palestinian cause have not only kept the flame of resistance alive but have also inspired countless others in their pursuit of liberation, he observed.

“Every martyrdom in this sacred struggle against occupation only multiplies the resistance. The blood of martyrs like Sayyed Hassan Nasrallah strengthens the resolve of those who continue to fight against oppression, injustice, and tyranny”, the Kashmiri leader said adding “Hezbollah's sacrifices, alongside those of the brave martyrs of Gaza, will forever remain a shining example for all oppressed nations, including the people of Kashmir, who seek their rightful freedom”

Ziai called upon the international community to hold Israel accountable for its war crimes and to stand with the oppressed people of Palestine. Sayyed Hassan Nasrallah's legacy will live on, and his sacrifice will only deepen the determination of those fighting for freedom and justice across the
