MIRPUR (AJK): Oct. 8: The 19th anniversary of the devastating earthquake, this day of October 08, 19 years ago in 2005 was commemorated across Azad Jammu & Kashmir on Tuesday as 'Youm e Istiqamat' – the day of patience in all hours of trial for the live nations.

Azad Jammu and Kashmir flag remained at half-mast on all private and public buildings of the state to mark the anniversary to mark the anniversary with sorrow and grief in loss of massive men and material following the history's first-ever natural catastrophe that jolted bulk of AJK and adjoining KPK province turning the quake hit zone into rubble.

Since this year too the anniversary was observed as the 'Day Of Patience' besides as National Day for Raising Awareness about safety from natural calamities it was solemnised as 'day of firmness and determination for reconstruction in memory of earthquake martyrs' coupled with special prayers for the rest of the departed souls of the quake victims in eternal peace and to express complete solidarity and sympathies with the survivors of the history's most worst natural catastrophe.

The 7.6 magnitude earthquake jolted Azad Kashmir and parts of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa at 8:52 am on the morning of October 8, 2005. Muzaffarabad, the AJK State's metropolis, was ground-zero in the catastrophic temblor. The city and the entire adjoining KPK's region to Balakot was left virtually unrecognizable when the earth stopped shaking leaving over 82,000 people dead and thousands injured.

The devastating earthquake of October 8, 2005, had shaken Azad Jammu Kashmir (AJK) and adjoining areas of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa (KPK) province turning major part of the two adjoining regions into rubble.

Lake-side Mirpur city of AJK observed the anniversary when it also met the identical fate in form of Sept. 24 devastating earthquake of moderate magnitude measuring 5.8 at Richter scale in year 2019 that had left at least 45 people dead and over 1000 injured besides huge damaging of the buildings across Mirpur city and adjoining areas of Jatlān leaving hundreds of thousands of the people shelter less badly affecting the daily life.

Our AJK Correspondent Altaf Hamid Rao reports from Mirpur on Tuesday that in Azad Jammu & Kashmir, the day dawned with special prayers for the martyrs of the earthquake. Prayers were also made for the liberation of the bleeding vale of Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir from Indian forced and unlawful occupation.

Fateh Khawani and Quran Khawani were offered for thousands of victims of the calamity who lost their lives in the quake-hit Muzaffarabad and other parts of Azad Jammu Kashmir and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa.

In Mirpur division special functions were held to mark the day as the National Disaster Awareness Day at the Quaid e Azam International Crick Stadium at the DHQ of Mirpur with new pledge.

A walk of the children living in Kashmir Orphan Relief Trust Rehabilitation and Educational Complex Mirpur was also taken out in Mirpur led by Founder Chairman of KORT Ch.
