Doha, October 24 (QNA) – The Qatari U-17 football team will face Nepal on Friday, at Aspire Academy 7 Stadium, in the second round of Group F in the 2025 AFC Asian Cup qualifiers, which will qualify for the finals scheduled in Saudi Arabia from Apr. 3 to 20.

The Qatari team hopes to continue its victories in the group competitions in order to enhance its chances of advancing and qualifying for the 12th continental finals.

The Qatari team started the qualifiers with a 2-0 victory over the Mongolian team last Wednesday, thanks to a brace by team captain Zaid Faisal.
