
DOHA RESIDENT WINS CH SMARAKA PURASKARAM FOR PROMOTING ARABIC LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

Published on October 25, 2024

Document Date: Wed, Feb 11 2026 06:54:43 pm

Category: ,English,Qatar - ,Snippets

Show on website : Click Here

DOHA:Doha resident Dr.Amanulla Vadakkangara has won the C.H.Muhammed Koya Smaraka Puraskaram instituted by the India based CH Muhammed Koya Memorial committee. The award in appreciation of his commendable contributions for promoting Arabic language and literature. CH Muhammed Koya, a former chief minister and education minister in Kerala was instrumental in promoting Arabic language

The award was presented to him by the son of CH Muhammed Koya and a former minister of Kerala Dr.M.K.Muneer MLA in the presence of an array of prominent personalities including former mps K.Muraleedharan MLA, Pannian Ravindran, K. Peethambarakurup .

Dr.Amanulla Vadakkangara, a former head of Arabic and Islamic studies at Ideal Indian school was responsible for introducing Arabic as a second language in the CBSE schools in Qatar. His spoken Arabic books have helped thousands of expatriates to communicate.

Amanulla 's initiatives to promote Arabic language and literature in the form of books and classes were praiseworthy, the jury observed

Pic. Dr.Amanulla Vadakkangara receiving the the C.H.Muhammed Koya Smaraka Puraskaram instituted by the India based CH Muhammed Koya Memorial committee from former Kerala minister and son of CH Muhammed Koya , Dr.M.K.Muneer