Kits Unveiling Stirs Excitement.

The countdown clock is ticking as Sohn Dharti Pakistan Cricket League (PCL-11) show is now just a few days away.

Amid the huge cheers, the impressive-looking kits of all six teams were unveiled by Sohn Dharti during a glitzy ceremony at Al Waha Club, Al Khor Community on Monday.

The eleventh edition of the event will be staged from November 2nd to February 15. The six-team event starts with the opener between Islamabad United facing off Quetta Gladiators.

Sohni Dharti chairman Mr. Anwar Ali Rana, Sports Secretary Mr. Zafar Chandio alongside of honourable chief guest Mr. Taimoor Ejaz (Manager Admissions, Riphah International University) and Mr. Rana Shakeel Anjum (Senior Pakistani Community Leader) inaugurated the occasion and expressed their happiness and best wishes to all the team captains.

All six teams kits are specially designed with the collaboration of six team captains and their team players. All kits are unique but with impressive combinations of eye-catching colours. Sports Secretary Zafar Chandio specifically has done a fantastic work to make sure there remains no question mark on fabric quality and kit sizes.

The captains, who were present on the occasion included Asghar Nadeem (Quetta Gladiator), Imtiaz Hussain (Multan Sultan), Ahmad Hassan (Islamabad United), Ghulam Farid (Karachi Kings) Khurram Shehzad (Lahore Qalandar) and Jawad Akbar (Peshawar Zalmi).

Sohni Dharti PCL-11 Brand Ambassador, Mr. Mohsin Ali, graced the event with his presence as well. Sohn Dharti vice president Mr. Umar Khayyam and some other notable community leaders were present during the kits inaugural ceremony.
