Occupied Jerusalem, November 03 (QNA) – The Israeli occupation forces (IOF) arrested 16

Palestinian civilians morning today, including a child and freed captives, within an operation that started last night in the West Bank, and they carried out field interrogations that affected dozens of civilians in Al-Fawwar camp, south of Al-Khalil.

In a joint statement, Palestinian Commission of Detainees and Ex-Detainees Affairs and the Palestinian Prisoner's Society (PPS) said that the arrests were spread across the West Bank's governorates of Ramallah, Nablus, Tubas, Salfit and Al-Khalil.

The IOF has arrested more than 11,500 Palestinian civilians across the governorates of the West Bank (including Al-Quds), since the beginning of the Israeli occupation's ongoing genocide and ethnic cleansing of the Gaza Strip.

This number is only a speculation as the actual number of arrests is unknown, but it is certain that the IOF has arrested thousands of Palestinian civilians (including children, underage students, freed captives and Palestinian civilians in general).

The policy of systematic arrests is one of the Israeli occupation's most prominent established policies, used by the occupation to undermine any kind of resistance against it.
