Doha, Qatar – November 3, 2024: Qatar Toastmasters Club celebrated its 27th anniversary in grand style at the Radisson Blu Hotel, gathering members and guests for an evening of reflection, inspiration, and growth. This landmark meeting marked nearly three decades of empowering individuals in Doha to build their communication and leadership skills through a supportive, diverse, and dynamic community.

Club President Eman Salameh addressed the audience, emphasizing the significance of this milestone in the club's journey. She welcomed attendees and introduced the Toastmaster of the Day, Sudhir Gujar, who eloquently introduced the meeting's theme, "27!" and guided the program with energy and enthusiasm.

The meeting celebrated the resilience, growth, and achievements that have defined Qatar Toastmasters Club. Past presidents and longtime members were honored including past District Directors Raghavan NV, Thayalan Kailayapillai and past club leaders Shoaib Kassem, Johnny Abou Zeid, Rajesh Nair and Rukhsana Khan, sharing memories that showcased the club's legacy of leadership excellence.

The evening continued with engaging speeches and an educational module, "Evaluate to Motivate," conducted by Abhishek Chattopadhyay followed by an engaging Quiz.

Veteran leader Thayalan shared insights into his journey of growth within Toastmasters, highlighting the strong foundations he built through the club's supportive environment.

Raghavan NV, a distinguished mentor and immediate past president, reflected on the club's rich legacy, emphasizing how its multicultural membership has fostered a unique and inclusive learning space that celebrates diverse perspectives.

In her closing remarks, President Eman expressed gratitude to all members, guests, and dignitaries who attended the event, celebrating the collective accomplishments of the club. As the meeting adjourned, attendees left with a renewed sense of purpose, inspired to continue the club's legacy of communication and leadership excellence.
