MIRPUR (AJK): Nov. 11: Kashmir-origin Mayor of Britain's Keighly city Chaudhry Gulfraz, on Monday visited Mirpur AJK Regional Capus of Allama Iqbal Open University (AIOU).

The mayor was planted a commemorative sapling at the entrance of the university campus.

During his visit, Mayor Gulfraz explored the university's mobile app and received a briefing on the admission process for international students. He toured several facilities, including the library, computer laboratory, e-classroom, and the university's garden spaces nurtured under the ongoing plantation drive.

Speaking on this occasion, Chaudhry Gulfraz praised AIOU's efforts to expand its global presence and reaffirmed his support for bringing the university's mission of "quality education at the doorstep" to the Pakistani diaspora in the UK.

Regional Director Faisal Shahzad expressed his gratitude to the British city mayor appraising him, in detail, an overview of the university's community outreach, program admissions, and the process for exercises, workshops, and examinations through AIOU's councils in the UK.

The event was attended by university researchers Zubair Ahmed Qazi, educationists Bashir Faraz, Munir Naz, Syed Ayub Shah, Jamshed Ahmed, and regional campus staff. Ends.
