Doha, November 13 (QNA) – HH the Amir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani will head to Ankara on Thursday on a working visit to the Republic of Turkiye, during which HH the Amir and HE President of the Republic of Turkiye Recep Tayyip Erdogan will co-chair the 10th session of the Qatari-Turkish Supreme Strategic Committee.

The 10th session will address prospects for enhancing the strategic partnership between the two fraternal countries, and exchange views on regional and international issues of common interest, in addition to signing a number of agreements and memoranda of understanding.

HH the Amir will be accompanied by HE Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Sheikh Mohammed bin Abdulrahman bin Jassim Al-Thani, along with an official delegation.
