MIRPUR (AJK): December 24: At least four persons were killed and one injured grievously, as a car, carrying a wedding-party, skidded off the road and fell into river in Neelum Valley in Azad Jammu Kashmir on Tuesday, police said

The tragic incident occurred at at Nagdar Koneri village in the Neelum Valley, where a car with five persons, including bridegroom of a wedding party, on board, fell into the Neelum River.

Four of the occupants of the ill-fated car were killed on the spot. Whereas the bridegroom sustained serious injuries, the area's police sources told this Correspondent over telephone Tuesday.

The accident occurred due to the car skidding on the icy road.

The wedding party was traveling from Mansehra to Changan, Neelum Valley. The top mountainous Neelum valley is experiencing harsh winter conditions, with heavy snowfall, making driving extremely hazardous.

Besides locals, official rescue teams immediately rushed to the scene of the mishap to join the rescue operation.
