MIRPUR (AJK): December 28: PML (N) AJK Chief and former Speaker of Azad Jammu Kashmir

Legislative Assembly Shah Ghulam Qadir has said that people of Jammu and Kashmir have ever-lasting deep rooted love and affection for Pakistan for its being their ultimate destination in all respect.

“The people of Azad Jammu Kashmir categorically frustrated and rejected the recent nefarious attempt to create an anti-Pakistan feeling created by some vested interest and disgruntled elements”, he said reiterating “We – the Kashmiris were Pakistani yesterday and are Pakistani today”.

Our Special Jammu and Kashmir state Correspondent Altaf Hamid Rao reports that the PML (N) AJK Central President Shah Ghulam Qadir was talking to journalists, affiliated with national and regional press at the sideline of the inauguration of newly established Central Secretariat of PML (N), Mirpur AJ&K district here late Friday, established by ex AJK minister and local PML (N) Supremo Ch. Muhammad Saeed at Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah International Cricket Stadium.

He was flanked by his top party colleagues from Azad Jammu Kashmir on this occasion including former AJK ministers Ch. Tariq Farooq, Syed Iftikhar Geelani, Dr. Najeeb Naqi, Raja Mushtaq Minhas, Khalid Masood Chaudhry besides other leaders including Ch. Sohaib Saeed, President Markazi Anjuman e Tajran Mirpur district and PML (N) leader Ch. Muhammad Naeem, District President PML (N) Ch. Javeid Qadir, Fateh Mehmood Kayani, Chaudhry Mohsin Aziz, City President Farooq Chauhan, New City President Mirza Basharat Jaral, Syed Taftir Hasan Shah, Councilors Chaudhry Razak, Imran Munir, Farooq Mir, Zahid Subhani and Muslim League Youth

Wing leaders Muneeb Thakur, Hafiz Yasir Bashir, Raja Qaiser Khan, Majid Mirza, Women League leader Irshad Idris, PML N Women wing AJK head Maryam Kashmiri besides a large number of the party workers on this occasion.

Shah Ghulam Qadir continued that those looking the dreams of stepping into power after coming General elections in AJK, should remember that they can't run as many injections as they have turned into crippled horse following poor management during their term in power in AJK.

Shah Ghulam Qadir said that some nefarious attempts by certain hand-picked vested interest elements to create an anti-Pakistan environment in Azad Jammu Kashmir, during recent movement for due public rights, snubbed by certain AJK regimes because of mismanagement, were unbearable for the people of the State.

“Pakistan is our first and last destination. No one can remove the love of Pakistan from the hearts of the Kashmiri people”, Qadir declared. “AJK people including our party workers are very angry to the incumbent AJK government because of its poorest performance”, he declared.

The PML N AJK Chief observed as saying Prime Minister Anwar-ul-Haq led AJK government does not know anything to run the regime as it totally lacks required skills, he blamed.

Shah Ghulam Qadir said that his party was in touch with the top leadership of the League over the AJK political affairs.

In response to a question about an Unofficial call from Washington for release of PTI founder, Qadir said that some disgruntled elements thought that the newly elected US President Trump has no work to do except raising such irrelevant demand for release of Imran Khan, there was no such thing”, he observed.

“Muslim League N will form the government by winning the coming AJK Legislative Assembly elections with a huge majority”, he asserted

Lauding party workers for their deep rooted love and affection with Pakistan and the party’s top dynamic leadership under the party’s supremo Mian Nawaz Sharif and Prime Minister Mian Shhbaz Sharif, Shah Ghulam Qadir said ” I pay rich tribute to the party workers for their huge participation in the inauguration ceremony of the central secretariat of the Muslim League, Mirpur, despite the heavy rainfall oriented chilled weather in these plains of Kashmir.

Later addressing a mammoth rally of the League workers, Shah Ghulam Qadir, besides the top PML N AJK leaders including Mushtaq Minhas, Senior Vice President of PML-N Azad Kashmir, Secretary General. Chaudhry Tariq Farooq, vice presidents Chaudhry Rukhsar, ex minister
