MIRPUR (AJK): January 08: In Indian Illegally occupied Jammu Kashmir state, an opposition

“MLA” from Handwara and Jammu and Kashmir People’s Conference (JKPC) Chief Sajad Lone on

Tuesday lambasted puppet Chief Minister Omar Abdullah of the IIOJK, accusing him of the product of political opportunism and hypocrisy, says a report reaching here on Tuesday from across the line of control.

In a strong statement, Lone said, “If facelessness had a face, our “Chief Minister’s” face comes to my mind. If facelessness had a voice, the speech of our “CM” at a ceremony in Srinagar comes to my mind”, he added, according to the report.

Lone criticized the Abdullah for shifting political stances, stating, “The same “CM” sahib who gave interview after interview saying the BJP has done nothing. And he uses the word highways in many interviews. And look how he was singing praises in honour of the BJP Prime Minister “, he underlined, the report said.

Lone further alleged that political dynamics in Indian Illegally occupied Jammu Kashmir were orchestrated, calling it a “fixed match” where BJP attacked certain parties during elections to make them appear credible to Kashmiri voters. “For me, it is believable. I always knew that it is a fixed match. In the so-called election period in the occupied state, the BJP was attacking them on a daily basis to make them look credible in the eyes of the Kashmiri people,” he remarked, the report said.

Expressing grave concerns over electoral influence, he questioned, “And how long will BJP decide who we will vote for? When will our voters mature?”

India’s ruling fascist BJP, it may be added, had suffered a convincing defeat in recent farcical elections to so-called Legislative assembly of IIOJK in Muslim majority Kashmir valley at the hands of the National Conference led electoral alliance.

The report continued that while taking a dig at intellectuals and opinion-makers, Lone added, “The prize for facelessness goes to our “CM”. And the prize for shamelessness goes to those so-called intellectuals, so-called opinion makers who, probably being a part of the fixed match, created an environment where the present “CM” Omar Abdullah enjoyed a monopoly to paint all his rivals with the BJP brush, he declared adding that all these so-called intellectuals, opinion makers came on social media and other forums facilitating the ‘All others are BJP’ discourse”, the report concluded.
