Doha, Qatar, January 08, 2025: Students from Park House English School, part of the International Schools Partnership (iSP), have received the prestigious Outstanding Pearson

Learner and High Achiever Awards 2024. These awards honour the top-performing students for their exceptional academic achievements across a comprehensive range of Pearson Edexcel examinations including International GCSE, GCSE, and A-level.

Students from Park House English School not only secured top scores in Qatar for IGCSE French, AS Economics, IGCSE P.E. and IGCSE Art & Design but one of their students also went on to get the 'Highest in the World' accolade for AS Business. The school also celebrated the success of 38 students who earned High Achiever Awards, for scoring top marks in at least three A-level subjects (grade A or above) or five IGCSE subjects (grade 8 or above).

Shahad received the Highest Mark in the World for AS Business; while Andre received the Highest Mark in Qatar for AS Economics, Omnia received the Highest Mark in Qatar for AS Economics and Rebecca received the Highest Mark in Qatar for GCSE French. Keren, Marley and Ammaarah all received the Highest Mark in Qatar for P.E.

The students at The English College, an iSP school in Dubai, also demonstrated extraordinary results, securing an impressive 22 High Achiever Awards and 12 Outstanding Pearson Learner Awards. Among these, nine students received the highest accolade, “Highest in the World,” while one student earned “Top in the Region,” and two students received “Top in the Country” honours, showcasing the school’s academic excellence, regionally and globally. Three students from Star International School, Mirdif also earned High Achiever Awards, while four students from Reach British School received the same accolade.

John Smith, Principal of Park House English School, said: “We are incredibly proud of our students’ outstanding achievements in this year’s Pearson Edexcel awards. These results reflect their hard work, resilience, and determination, as well as the exceptional dedication and expertise of our teaching staff. At Park House English School, we strive to provide an inspiring environment where our students can excel academically and develop into confident, well-rounded individuals. This recognition reinforces our reputation as one of Qatar’s leading schools.”

Rory Galvin, Regional Director of Learning at International Schools Partnership, added:

“These accolades are a testament to the exceptional quality of education provided at Park House English School. They reflect iSP’s commitment to academic excellence and the development of every student’s potential. We are delighted to see the outstanding success of our students and the remarkable impact of their hard work and determination.”
