The Pakistan Business Council Qatar (PBCQ) organised a warm reception to welcome the newly-appointed Ambassador of Pakistan to the State of Qatar His Excellency Lt General (R) Muhammad Amir.

The event, held at Marriott Marquis City Centre Doha, was attended by distinguished members of the Pakistani business community and senior officers from the Embassy of Pakistan.

Imran Rafique, General Secretary of PBCQ, opened the meeting by outlining the Council's mission, vision, and significant contributions to Qatar's socio-economic development. He emphasised the Council's role as a facilitator of collaboration between Pakistani entrepreneurs and professionals in Qatar.

Members of the Council introduced themselves and their respective contributions to Qatar's economic and social landscape, with Riyaz Ahmed Bakali, Co-President PBCQ, presenting key accomplishments of the Pakistani diaspora.

Israr Malazai, President of PBCQ, articulated the Council's commitment to creating expanded opportunities for the Pakistani community, enhancing professional ties, and advancing the shared goals of its members. He reiterated the Council's dedication to promoting strategic initiatives to strengthen the community's impact on Qatar's development.

HE Lt General (R) Muhammad Amir expressed his heartfelt gratitude for the reception and commended the Council's pivotal role in fostering a robust and unified Pakistani community.

Drawing upon his distinguished career in military and civil service, His Excellency reiterated his resolve to fortify the historical bonds of friendship and cooperation between the two countries. He also outlined strategies to enhance employment opportunities for skilled Pakistani workers and pledged unwavering support for local businesses within Qatar.

“It is my firm belief that by fostering unity and mutual collaboration, we can achieve remarkable milestones in strengthening Pakistan-Qatar relations. My commitment to deepening this bond remains steadfast,” remarked the ambassador.

The event chaired by Fawad Rana, Chairperson of PBCQ, served as an invaluable platform to formally introduce His Excellency to the vibrant Pakistani diaspora in Qatar and a platform to collaborate effectively with His Excellency to Qatar’s vibrant Pakistani business community.

Rana, recognised as the driving force behind the Council’s initiatives, extended a heartfelt welcome and reaffirmed the Council’s commitment to fostering robust business and trade relations between the two brotherly countries. He reaffirmed the Council’s unwavering commitment to fostering enhanced business, trade, and cultural relations between Pakistan and Qatar.

The event also acknowledged the notable contributions of Deputy Head of Mission Syed Mustafa Rabbani and Trade and Investment Attaché Ms Serein Asad, whose dedication to fostering bilateral relations was applauded.

The reception concluded with an elegant networking session, providing an excellent opportunity for dialogue and collaborative exchanges, symbolising the shared vision of progress and prosperity for both nations.

The notable and senior business leaders Ahmed Hussain, G D Bangash, Khaqan Khan, Malik Rafique, Muhammad Khan, Mustafa Bakali, Parvez Iqbal, Salman Shaban, Sayab Khan, Shahid Khan, Sobia Sarmad graced the event by their presence.
