London, 17.01.2025 : Syed Rafi, a multifaceted leader and the winner of the prestigious SIGTA South Icon Telangana Award, was felicitated by SABABA London in a heartfelt ceremony upon his return from the United States. Joining him in this honor was a distinguished AIMIM Hyderabad corporator, Mustafa Ali Muzaffar recognized for his remarkable contributions to community development in Hyderabad.

Syed Rafi's illustrious career and dedication to community upliftment have earned him widespread recognition. As the President of Doha Music Lovers and Cric Qatar, and the Vice President of ICC Film Club, Telugu Sports Association, and Central Indian Association, Syed Rafi has played a pivotal role in promoting cultural, sports, and social initiatives across global platforms.

The SIGTA South Icon Telangana Award is a prestigious accolade that celebrates individuals who have made extraordinary contributions in their fields, shining a spotlight on Telangana's vibrant talent and leadership. Syed Rafi's recognition underscores his tireless efforts in fostering cultural exchange, sportsmanship, and community development.

The felicitation ceremony by SABABA London was a grand affair, attended by community leaders, dignitaries, and well-wishers. In his address, Syed Rafi expressed his heartfelt gratitude:

“I am deeply honored to receive this prestigious award and to be celebrated by SABABA London. This recognition fuels my passion to continue serving and representing our community on global platforms. My journey has always been about building bridges through music, sports, and cultural initiatives, and this award is a testament to the collective efforts of everyone who has supported me.” Syed Rafi thanked Abdul Hannan & Mohammed Imtiyaz and Salman Hamed for the felicitation and grand welcome. Syed Mukarram the captain of HIQ Team was present along with Mohd Habeeb.

The event also celebrated the AIMIM Hyderabad corporator, who was acknowledged for his unwavering dedication to public service and efforts to uplift the community in Hyderabad. His leadership has been instrumental in driving positive change and fostering unity within the city.

The ceremony featured inspiring speeches and a vibrant exchange of ideas to further strengthen the global recognition of the region's talent and contributions.
