TASHKENT, January 21. /Dunyo IA/. Uzbekistan's Deputy Foreign Minister Olimjon Abdullaev met with Kuwait's Charge d'Affaires Khalid al-Mutairat to discuss migration and visa issues, reports Dunyo IA.

Key topics included simplifying the visa regime, addressing foreign labor migration, and organizing high-level bilateral and multilateral meetings.

The two parties agreed to establish a permanent Working Group to facilitate constructive dialogue on these matters. This group will focus on coordinating and addressing migration and visa-related issues efficiently.

The initiative underscores the commitment of Uzbekistan and Kuwait to enhance cooperation, streamline processes, and strengthen ties for mutual benefit.
