MIRPUR (AJK): Jan. 23: (APP): Jammu & Kashmir population dwelling both sides of the line of control including AJK, IIOJK and rest of the world, would observe the Indian Republic Day, falling on Sunday ~ January 26, as black day to invite the attention of external world towards the continual long unlawful and force and forcible Indian occupation of Jammu & Kashmir and continued depriving them (Kashmiris) of their internationally-recognized right of self determination by India since last 77 years, Our Special Jammu and Kashmir state Correspondent Altaf Hamid Rao reports quoting authoritative official sources in AJK, the base camp of Kashmir Freedom Struggle.

As a reiteration of full hatred against India, people of disputed Jammu Kashmir state observe India's all national days including its Republic day as black day every year on January 26 to mark strong indignation and protest against the continued long Indian subjugation of the occupied Jammu & Kashmir besides to mark the Indian Republic Day as black day every year to protest and apprise the world of the continued brutalities and custodial killing of the innocent Kashmiris and the unabated massive violations of human rights by the Indian occupying forces in the held state. This year, too, the furious Kashmiris are observing the Indian republic day as black day at the time when the hardliner PM Modi-led Indian fascist government, by violating all global norms and commitments on the international issue of Jammu and Kashmir, scrapped special status of the internationally-acknowledged disputed status of the Jammu Kashmir revoking article 370 and article 35-A of her (India) constitution through August 5, 2019 sinister action at the gun point through fresh deployment of at least a million of its military and para military troops in Indian-occupied Jammu Kashmir.

Similar protest rallies are also scheduled to be held under the auspices of various social, political and public representative organizations representing people of all spheres of life including lawyers, journalists, members of the business community, laborers, students, women and social and political workers to express fullest traditional hatred against the Indian imperialism besides protesting against the continued denial of all global norms and commitments on Kashmir and the persistent deviation and denial of the Kashmiris birth right to self determination since over last 76 years by India.

In Mirpur, a mammoth protest rally, to be followed by a big procession of people belonging all segments of the civil society, to observe the Indian Republic Day as black day, will be held at Shaheed chowk, Mirpur Deputy Commissioner and Chairman National Events Organizing Committee MIRPUR-AJK district Yasir Riaz Chaudhry told this Correspondent here on Thursday while unveiling the day long anti-India protest programs in various parts of this district besides rest of AJK.

“The city elite representing all sections of the civil society will highlight the importance of early peaceful settlement of the Kashmir problem besides expressing severe hatred against India for her continued forcible and illegal Indian occupation of Kashmir for the past over 77 years.
