

Delivery of Quick Medical Cover at Emergency: Mirpur DHQ Teaching Hospital Equipped With latest Filter Clinics: MS

Published On: February 13, 2025 05:45:42 AM
Show on Website: Click Here

Altaf Hamid Rao.

MIRPUR (AJK): February 13: Under the spirit to deliver swift medical services to the patients, state of the art filter clinics have been set up AJK 's biggest Mirpur Divisional Teaching Hospital here., it wa officially said.

Disclosing this Medical Superintendent of the DHQ Hospital Dr. Anir Aziz told this Correspondent here on Thursday that Prime objectives of the clinics was to lessen the burden on emergency (Accident and Trauma) department in the hospital to facilitate the highly serious patients who need immediate critical care could immediately be treated accordingly, he added.

Eleborating the salient features of the Filter Clinics, the Medical Superintendent Dr. Amir Aziz said under the broad-based vision of the AJK Prime Minister Ch Anwar ul Haq about delivery of quality quick medical aid to serious patients landing at the Accident and Emergency Wing of the Hospital and the subsequent directions of AJK state minister for health, Nisar Ansar Abdali, the Mirpur DHQ Hospital, was determined under professional commitment to expedite the health care services to masses both for in and outdoor patients in line with the needof the modernage under prime focus to safe the precious human lives.through best possible treatment.

He reaffirmed the State Health Department's resolve in general and Mirpur Division HQ Teaching Hospital in particular, to deliver to the population of Mirpur city and the district best possible medical facilities under the spirit of bringing more professionalism and passion among health care providers.

Dr. Amir Aziz while stressing the need of continuous learning and educational sessions for postgraduate resident doctors and house officers, underlined that the hospital was simultaneously managing the capacity building training programs for the doctors besides for nursing officers as such learning programs were being held under the auspices of the hospital through the professional senior staff on weekly basis, he concluded.