Munich, Germany, February 16 (QNA) – A high-level Doha Forum delegation attended the 61st Munich Security Conference (MSC), reinforcing its commitment to fostering meaningful global dialogue and cooperation on pressing international challenges.

HE Doha Forum's Executive Director Mubarak Ajlan Al Kuwari said: "As global challenges grow increasingly interconnected, the Munich Security Conference services as a vital platform for shaping the conversations that drive stability and progress. Doha Forum's longstanding relationship with MSC reflects our shared commitment to fostering inclusive dialogue, forging strategic alliances, and transforming ideas into meaningful action. Now more than ever, we must harness our collective expertise to navigate uncertainty and build a more peaceful, secure, and sustainable future." The 61st edition of MSC, held in Munich from February 14-16, 2025, convened global leaders, policy-makers, and experts to address urgent foreign policy and security challenges.

Looking ahead, Doha Forum's 23rd edition, themed "Equity in Action: Beyond Promises to Progress", will take place on 6-7 December 2025 in Doha, Qatar. As a leading global platform for policymakers, business leaders, and civil society representatives, Doha Forum remains committed to driving meaningful dialogue, driving solutions, and advancing sustainable development on the world stage.
