Riyadh, February 25 (QNA) – The State of Qatar, represented by Qatar Charity, took part in the 4th Riyadh International Humanitarian Forum in Riyadh, which brought together a distinguished group of experts, donors, and humanitarian professionals from around the globe.

The participating delegation was led by Chief Governance and External Affairs Officer at Qatar Charity Mohamed Ali Al Ghamdi.

In a statement, Qatar Charity highlighted that the forum focused on boosting international cooperation and supporting humanitarian efforts aimed at improving response strategies and providing assistance to communities in need. The event offered a chance to learn about the latest trends in global humanitarian work through panel discussions, interactive sessions, and workshops. Participants also had the opportunity to hold side meetings with representatives of international humanitarian organizations to share insights and strengthen partnerships.

Additionally, Qatar Charity showcased its humanitarian and developmental achievements at the exhibition.

The forum, which took place on February 24-25, saw the participation of 150 global organizations and 300 international representatives. It covered vital topics such as the role of humanitarian diplomacy in crisis management, strategies for aid delivery and supply chain facilitation, and solutions to address displacement amid escalating conflicts and natural disasters
