Occupied Jerusalem, March 06 (QNA) – More than 85,000 worshipers performed Isha and Tarawih prayers Thursday at Al-Aqsa Mosque in occupied Jerusalem.

The Islamic Endowments Department in occupied Jerusalem said that 85,000 worshipers performed Isha and Tarawih prayers on the sixth day of the holy month of Ramadan, in light of the strict military measures imposed by the Israeli occupation authorities, which prevent thousands of citizens from the West Bank governorates from reaching Jerusalem to perform prayers at Al-Aqsa Mosque.
