“The rally was a tribute to the unwavering struggle that led to the creation of Pakistan and reaffirmed the unbreakable bond between Pakistan and Kashmir.

March 23, 1940, holds immense significance in the history of Pakistan, as it was the day when the All-India Muslim League, under the leadership of Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah, passed the historic Lahore Resolution. The historical resolution laid the foundation for the creation of an independent and sovereign state for Muslims, free from the clutches of British colonial rule and Hindu domination in the subcontinent”, the organizers told APP on Sunday.

The rally served as a powerful reminder that Pakistan and Kashmir share a common destiny. The letter “K” in Pakistan stands for Kashmir, highlighting its integral connection with the nation. Pakistan has made immense sacrifices to liberate Kashmir from Indian occupation, and the struggle continues. The youth participating in the rally reaffirmed their commitment to this cause, vowing to uphold the legacy of their elders who sacrificed for Pakistan’s independence and sovereignty.

The rally, which passed through key locations including Upper Adda and Nilochi Bridge before culminating at the Press Club the, was an expression of solidarity with the defenders of Pakistan.
