“The participation of the Kashmiris’ representatives in the Lahore summit was a testament to the fact that Kashmiris shared this vision alongside other entities of Pakistan”, he remarked. He said that the state of Pakistan is incomplete without Kashmir just as the word Pakistan cannot be formed without the letter K. The PM termed the ongoing freedom movement in occupied Jammu and Kashmir as an extension of the Pakistan movement. The Prime Minister Haq said that anti-national forces work hand in glove with Fitna-ul-Kharij and other terrorist organizations to destabilize Pakistan.

“The brave forces of Pakistan are laying down their lives to combat these challenges and protect the nation, ensuring its security and stability”, he added. The entire nation stands shoulder to shoulder with our brave forces in war against terrorism. The PM paid eulogizing tributes to the martyrs who sacrificed their lives during the Pakistan movement. He also paid homage to Kashmiri martyrs who laid down their lives for the sacred cause of freedom.
