Recalling the sacrifices being rendered by the Kashmiri people in pursuit of their fundamental right to self-determination, he said that it was quite unfortunate that the people of region continue to suffer under India’s relentless repression since August 5, 2019.

Expressing solidarity with the Kashmiri people in Indian occupied Kashmir, the president expressed the hope that ultimately, truth and justice will triumph and the people of the region will

Sultan expressed his profound belief that the entire region of Jammu and Kashmir after achieving freedom from India's illegal occupation will become part of Pakistan. "The cultural, geographical, economic, and spiritual connections that the region shares with Pakistan are unbreakable", he said, adding that history bears witness to the fact that Pakistan has been consistent in providing an unwavering support to Kashmir on political, moral, and diplomatic fronts.
