on Monday, the Chinese embassy in Doha celebrated the Spring Festival and the Chinese Lunar New Year with the participation of several senior Qatari officials, leaders from various diplomatic missions, and members of the Chinese community. Ambassador Cao Xiaolin expressed his gratitude to the Qatari community for their unwavering support in strengthening bilateral relations.

The following dignitaries attended the event:

Mr. Hassan Jassim Al-Sayed, Assistant Undersecretary of the Government Information Technology Sector, Minister Advisor, and Chairman of the Artificial Intelligence Committee.

H.E Ambassador Ibrahim Yousif Abdullah Fakhro, Director of the Department of Protocol at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA).

Director of the Policy and Planning Department at MOFA.

Director of GCC Affairs at MOFA.

Mr. Saleh Al-Mana, Director of the International Cooperation and Trade Agreements Department at the Ministry of Commerce and Industry.

H.E Ambassador Muhemmed Aejaz of Pakistan.

Mr. Khalifa bin Ahmed Al-Thani, leader of HBA Private Trading and Contracting and Qatari Ambassador to China, Mohamed Al-Dehaimi

The Spring Festival reception, marking the Chinese New Year, began with gratitude from the Chinese Ambassador to Qatar, thanking attendees for their support in fostering China-Qatar relations. The Ambassador, who arrived in Qatar on January 2nd, highlighted the nation's prosperity, safety, and active diplomacy during his month-long engagement. He celebrated the 10th anniversary of the strategic partnership, emphasizing deepened trust and economic cooperation, with China now Qatar's largest trading partner.

Despite global challenges, the Ambassador expressed confidence in a shared global community of peace and prosperity, highlighting China's contributions to peace talks and economic stability. China's commitment to open development, notably through initiatives like the Belt and Road Forum, showcased its role in global economic recovery.

Looking ahead, the Ambassador pledged to implement agreements made during successful high-level meetings, aligning the Belt and Road Initiative with Qatar National Vision 2030. He anticipated the Chinese Lunar New Year as an opportunity to enhance exchanges with Qatari friends and sought continued support for friendly relations.

In closing, the Ambassador extended wishes for prosperity and lasting friendship, stressing the importance of sustaining cooperation momentum. He reiterated the embassy's commitment to enhancing bilateral ties across sectors and emphasized cultural exchange as crucial for strengthening diplomatic relations.

Guests were invited to celebrate the Chinese Lunar New Year, symbolizing new beginnings and prosperity. The Ambassador expressed gratitude for attendees' support, promising continued efforts to deepen cooperation between China and Qatar. As the reception concluded, guests departed with optimism for the future of bilateral relations.
