Singapore, May 05 (QNA) – The dollar was losing ground again on Monday on a significant rise in Asian currencies.

The dollar index dipped 0.2 percent to 99.717.

China's yuan duly hit its highest in almost six months at 7.1980 per dollar. The euro edged up 0.3 percent to $1.1333.

The dollar eased 0.4 percent to 144.21 yen, and away from Friday's top around 145.91.

The Aussie edged up to $0.6466, having hit a five-month high.
