

Qatar Amir expresses his pride in graduation of 48th batch of QU students

Published on May 7, 2025

Document Date: Sat, Dec 27 2025 03:41:36 am

Category: ,English,Qatar - ,Snippets

Show on website : Click Here

Doha, May 07 (QNA) – HH the Amir Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani expressed his pride in the graduation of the 48th batch of Qatar University (QU) students, wishing them a promising future academically and professionally.

Posting on his official account on X, HH the Amir said that he is proud of the graduation of the 48th batch of QU students, congratulating them on this well-deserved success and wishing them a promising future academically and professionally.

His Highness also extended his congratulations to their families and professors for their sincere efforts in supporting and qualifying this batch of national talents, contributing to the country's path toward progress, growth, and sustainable development.