The Pakistani community of Midlands in United Kingdom celebrated the Youm-e-Tashakur (the Day of Gratitude), to mark the heroic victory in operation "Bunyanum Marsoos".

Gratitude day was solemnly observed at the Consulate of Pakistan Birmingham to honor the victory in recent conflict with India and to pay tribute to the martyrs of the Pakistan Armed Forces who sacrificed their lives for the protection of the sacred homeland. On this occasion, special acknowledgment was given to the bravery of the Pakistan Arms Forces, its key role in national defense, and for thwarting the nefarious designs of the enemy. The unwavering support of the nation.

This victory was not just a military success—it was a testament to unity, resilience, and unwavering faith in our homeland. It reaffirmed the courage of our armed forces and the unbreakable spirit of the Pakistani people.

At the conclusion of the event, special prayers were offered for the safety and progress of the country and the elevation of the ranks of the martyrs of the Pakistan Arms Forces.

Finally, all the patriots and participants were served with FANTASTIC TEA.
