MIRPUR (AJK): May 20: Mirpur-AJK based South Asia's largest Rehabilitation and Educational Non-governmental institution Kashmir Orphan Relief Trust (KORT) has started the distribution of food packages among the families affected by recent unprovoked Indian aggression against various parts of this side of the.

Ceasefire Line (LoC) in Azad Jammu Kashmir, it was officially said.

Disclosing this, founder Chairman KORT Ch. Akhter Kashmir Wala told our Special Jammu Kashmir state Correspondent Altaf Hamid Rao here on Tuesday that hundreds of the Indian firing affected families in Jura area of Neelum Valley, close to this side of the Ceasefire line, were given away the giant packs of relief edibles including flour, rice, cooking oil, pulses, spices and other related items, at the first leg of the relief goods disbursement programme of the KORT to facilitate the needy at this crucial stage.

The phased plan, Akhter added, would be continued till complete facilitation of the war affectees in the areas close to this side of the CFL in Azad Jammu Kashmir

The KORT Chairman thanked the donors for their generous support and donations for the war affectees in the remote and far flung areas located close to this side of the Ceasefire line, he added.
