MIRPUR (AJK): May 28: Jammu Kashmir United Movement (JKUM) Wednesday organized grand rallies across Azad Kashmir on the occasion of “Youm-e-Takbir” that observed across Pakistan and Azad Jammu Kashmir on May 28, with great enthusiasm and devotion.

The rallies were taken out in Mirpur, Muzaffarabad, Bagh, Palandri, Rawalakot, Kotli, Jhelum

Valley and other districts in which a large number of workers, youth, elders and the public participated with enthusiasm, a JKUM spokesman told this Correspondent here on Wednesday.

Addressing the rallies, Jammu Kashmir United Movement President Sardar Babar Hussain, General Secretary Engineer Kashif Jamil, President Jammu Kashmir United Students Federation Abdullah Shafiq, and central leader Sardar Rizwan Hanif said that May 28, 1998, stands as a golden chapter in Pakistan's history when a clear message was given to the enemies of Islam that this nation will neither bow down nor be sold. They said that Youm-e-Takbir was not only a memorial of Pakistan's nuclear capability but also a day reflecting the determination, courage and perseverance of the oppressed Kashmiri people.

The leadership reiterated the resolve that the Jammu Kashmir United Movement will never compromise on national pride, sovereignty, and Islamic ideology and will continue its political and public struggle until the establishment of an Islamic, dignified and independent state in the region.

Central leader Sardar Rizwan Hanif said while speaking that "May 28 was not just a date, but a day of victory for ideology. These nuclear explosions became hope for the oppressed and a warning to the enemy. We pay tribute to the architects, scientists, leaders and martyrs of the nuclear program.

"Pakistan's nuclear assets are not only the protector of its land, but also the guarantor of the defense of the Muslim Ummah", he said adding that the enthusiasm witnessed among the people was visible during the rallies, the entire environment was echoed with the loud with Zindabad slogans for Pakistan and Youm e Takbeer.
