Five-Days Festival Features Interactive Entertainment, Family Activities and Cultural Performances

Doha, Qatar – 2 June 2025: Msheireb Properties, Qatar’s leading sustainable property developer, announced today a vibrant programme of activities and entertainment in celebration of Eid Al Adha. Taking place at Msheireb Galleria in Msheireb Downtown Doha from 6–10 June 2025, the five-day festival will offer live entertainment, exciting stage shows, and fun-filled activities for children.

Msheireb Downtown Doha continues to cement its position as Qatar's premier celebration destination, thanks to its pedestrian-friendly streets and iconic architecture that blends tradition with modernity. As a sustainable city offering the ideal year-round environment for families, Msheireb Downtown Doha becomes especially lively during festive seasons, delivering unique and memorable experiences for all.

Eid Celebrations (6–10 June 2025):

The celebration will run daily from 4:00 PM to 11:00 PM, transforming Msheireb Galleria into a festive hub filled with joyful entertainment and family-friendly programming.

Entertainment Stage:

The festival features a lively entertainment stage offering spectacular interactive shows and diverse family activities. Visitors can enjoy theatrical performances and live music, creating an exciting and vibrant atmosphere for all.

Interactive Children's Activities:

The event features dedicated children's programming designed to create a fun and family-friendly atmosphere. The celebration includes magic shows, bubble shows, interactive science experiments, face painting, creative workshops, and educational activities suitable for children of all ages.

Special Shows and Entertainment:

The festive programme includes a variety of entertaining competitions and interactive activities that give children and families the chance to win prizes, alongside live musical performances throughout the day to create a joyful and celebratory atmosphere for all.

As part of Msheireb Downtown Doha:

Three premier hotels – Mandarin Oriental Doha, Park Hyatt Doha, and Al Wadi Hotel Doha MGallery – are offering special Eid packages and activity programmes. Visitors can also explore Msheireb Museums during special Eid operating hours: closed Thursday and Friday, open 11 am – 7pm Saturday to Monday, returning to regular hours on Tuesday.

Admission to all entertainment and activities is free, with a few select attractions available for a nominal fee. The celebration is designed to welcome families and visitors of all ages. For more information about Eid Al Adha activities and events at Msheireb Galleria, please follow Msheireb
