APHC-AJK Convener Mehmood Ahmed Saghar in a statement in Islamabad said that KH

Khursheed was a legendry person with saintly qualities and had the distinction of being the private secretary of Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah one of the tallest leaders in history and founding father of Pakistan.

He said, late KH Khursheed was a great diplomat who worked tirelessly to spread awareness about the historical background of dispute on Jammu Kashmir. “He was a true son of soil who left no stone unturned for the final resolution of Kashmir problem as per the wishes and aspirations of people of Jammu and Kashmir. His contribution to resistance movement will never be forgotten by the freedom loving Kashmiris,” they said.

APHC-AJK convener also congratulated the newly elected Pakistan President Asif Ali Zardari, of the Pakistan Peoples Party, who took oath of his office on Saturday.
