MIRPUR (AJK): June 20: Lauding the recent meeting of US President Donald Trump and the Field Marshall of Pakistan Syed Asim Munir at White House in Washington, veteran Kashmiri Political Analyst and former AJK Govt Media Adviser Hameed Shaheen Alvi has said that the Thursday's meeting in Washington DC between Field Marshall Syed Asim Munir and American President Donald Trump has generated high political positivism for the entire currently tense world.

Field Marshall Syed Asim Munir's successful peace advocacy has recalibrated Pakistan as a trustworthy international peace promoter and partner. It is a prideful achievement for the state and the people of Pakistan, he added.

Talking to this Correspondent here Thursday evening Mr Alvi said that various contents of talks including trade, minerals, artificial intelligence and crypto currency show the wider range of discussions held between FM Syed Asim Munir and US President Donald Trump. "President Trump's interest in longer duration mutual strategic and trade partnership between the US and Pakistan features the successful outcome of their meaningful talks", he commented.

"It is again a welcome feature of their successful talks that both sides emphasized the urgency of peaceful solution to the Iran-Israel dispute. President Trump's praise for Field Marshall Asim Munir's leadership and decisive role in toughest hours of recent South Asian abnormal situation means a lot for Pakistan. This Thursday meeting between FM Syed Asim Munir and President Trump will certainly give a fresh boost to the age-old strategic partnership between Pakistan and the United States, he commented
