Qatari businessman Abdullah Al-Awadhi, owner of Chopin, hosted a special ceremony at his Al Sadd Street showroom to launch a new line of premium sweets, Belgian-origin, Lebanese-made chocolate and Royal Nuts products.

The event was held in the presence of His Excellency Ambassador Ibrahim bin Yousef Fakhro,

Director of the Protocol Department at Qatar's Ministry of Foreign Affairs, alongside several ambassadors, heads of diplomatic missions, prominent businessmen, and media representatives.

The exclusive gathering celebrated culinary craftsmanship and highlighted Qatar's growing appetite for luxury confectionery offerings from regional and international sources.
