Doha, June 24 (QNA) – Qatar Airways announced the reinstatement of flights following the reopening of the State of Qatar's airspace.

In a statement, Qatar Airways said: “Our focus at this time is to help our passengers return home or reach their onward journey safely and smoothly.”

It added that it is working tirelessly with government stakeholders and the relevant authorities to restore operations as quickly as possible.

Qatar Airways pointed out that it has deployed additional ground staff at Hamad International Airport and other key airports to assist affected passengers by minimizing disruptions and offering the utmost care and support to all customers.

It anticipated significant delays to its flight schedule as operations resume, advising passengers to check qatarairways.com or the Qatar Airways mobile application ahead of travel.
