Msheireb Downtown Doha, known as the heart of Qatar's culture and community, is set to become a family hub during Ramadan. Throughout March and April, the district will host a variety of immersive experiences, including workshops, exhibitions, and entertainment, all aiming to foster cherished memories for visitors. From engaging installations to a bustling Bazaar and live performances, activities will run daily from 8:30 pm to 1:30 am, enveloping guests in the spirit of the season.

In addition to cultural festivities, Msheireb Downtown Doha will honor Ramadan traditions with events like the firing of the Ramadan cannon and special prayers led by prominent scholars and imams at its mosques. Religious lectures will also take place, offering spiritual enrichment for worshippers and visitors alike.

Recognizing its historical role as a community gathering place, Msheireb Downtown Doha aims to preserve this spirit by providing opportunities for communal celebration, particularly during significant occasions like Ramadan.

Culinary delights will be abundant during Ramadan, with the Mandarin Oriental Hotel managing Iftar and Suhoor experiences at Barahat Msheireb. Featuring open buffet concepts, live cooking stations, and entertainment, these experiences promise to delight guests of all ages.

A variety of community activities will be available throughout Ramadan, including daily paddle tournaments, arts and crafts workshops, and educational seminars on Ramadan traditions.

Additionally, a photography exhibition and a dedicated Ramadan corner will offer opportunities for cultural immersion and relaxation.

Garangao, a beloved tradition during Ramadan, will be celebrated with tram tours and goody bag distributions. Families are encouraged to participate in costume contests, further fostering community engagement and creating lasting memories for all involved.
